

Joint Water Quality Commission

The JWQC wastewater treatment facility consists of a fine screen followed by sequencing batch reactors (SBR) with discharge to three seepage cells. There are four monitoring wells around the perimeter of the system. Sludge is aerobically digested then stored and moisture removed in four reed bed cells.

NOT TO SCALE